BRENTWOOD BEAT

By Jeffery S. Hall

September is a month chock-full of events. On Sunday, September 17 is the annual Brentwood Art Fair on San Vicente, put on by Ray Leier of del Mano Gallery and the Westwood/Brentwood Rotary Club. It's always a winner and a great place to do all your holiday shopping all at one time, all in one place.

Side by side with this event, the Greater West LA Chamber of Commerce will host its annual Health Fair. You can stop a booth to find out what percent body fat you have; the people at the booth next door will tell you what you can do about it.

The Chamber will also host a lunchtime speech by Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa. That takes place Tuesday, September 19 at the Luxe Hotel. Cost is $40. Go to www.WestLAChamber.org for more information, or call 310-481-0600.

Let's see, what else is going on? Be sure to read about the bomb threat at Whole Foods. That's certainly a little out of the ordinary.

Seems like there are plenty of comings and goings, not as dramatic as a bomb threat, but important to note.

Terra Cotta, a wonderful home furnishings outlet on San Vicente is moving on. We hear something new is in the works for that property.

Just west of there on San Vicente, "Foot Candy," a high-end shoe store, opens this month in the old Architecture location.

Over in Brentwood Village, in between Star Toys and San Gennaro on Barrington Place, you'll find a new lingerie place called Uniquek.

Just down the street a bit, across from the VA parking lot, is Victoria's, a cute new fashion boutique. RPM Clothing for men is new to Barrington Court, between Starbucks and Divino's. Welcome to the neighborhood, all.

For those of you who like to plan ahead, Great Tastes of Brentwood returns in October. Stay tuned to the Brentwood News, we'll do our best to keep you posted.

By the way, many great news tips come from you, our readers. Don't hesitate to let us know what's going on so we can tell everyone else.
